Lot with Interior Finished Bunker on Site

The owners of this unconventional abode created an improved and unique living space that includes a total of four bedrooms, 2 baths and an office space off of the living area. The entrance to the bunker is covered with outdoor storage space. Stairs lead to an upper level shop/office. Currently a metal framed structure is on site which could be wrapped or removed to free up space for additional parking or construction. Call Davis Realty to schedule a viewing of the property or see details and photos online now.
